TOM CERRY is under $500 bond to answer for numerous robberies at Owingsville and in that vicinity.

WINCHESTER is to have a new opera house, much larger and handsomer than the one recently burned.

SEVERAL unbridled dogs may be seen on the streets every day. Why is not the Mayor's proclamation obeyed?

THE physicians of Dr. Herr, of Lexington, have but little hopes of his recovery. He has been ill some time.

THE county levy in Pendleton has been fixed at 60 cents on the $100—25 cents for paupers and 35 for turnpike purposes.

FARMERS, you can find anything you want in the hardware line at Frank Owens Hardware Company's establishment. If

THE celebrated Boston Male Quartette are among the singers with "The Hustler." Hear them Saturday night at the opera house.

SHERIFF DRENNAN, of Fleming, called on the BULLETIN this morning while in town, en route home from a trip to Cincinnati.

THE Montgomery County Farmers' Alliance has characterized State President Erwin as a disgrace to the order. That just about fits him.

MRS. JENNIE O. CLARKE will open her art class February 1st. Those wishing to join the class will call at her residence, corner Third and Plum. 22-10t

A PLEASANT evening is promised all who attend the entertainment at the opera house by Mr. Frederick D. Losey, the dramatic reader and impersonator.

MR. GEO. T. WOOD has put down a new combination brick-line-and-cinder sidewalk in front of his residence on Forest avenue.

THE oil house and repair shops of the Kentucky Central at Paris were destroyed by fire late Tuesday night. Loss, $1,000; covered by insurance.

CARLISLE has a Conversational Club which meets weekly at the home of one of the members. Some subject to talk about is selected days before.

W. T. SYDNER, the trotting horse breeder who shot himself a few days ago in Bourbon County, is improving, and his friends now have hopes of his recovery.

THE BULLETIN has discarded her old clothes and is "dyked" out in a new dress to-day. Some of the old type—the non-pariel—had been in use nearly twenty years.

JOHN KERNELL, the Irish comedian, and Dan Mason, the German comedian, are with "The Hustlers" who will be the attraction at the opera house Saturday night.

FREDERICK D. LOSEY, who will give an entertainment at the opera house next Monday night, is highly spoken of as a dramatic reader and impersonator. Go hear him.

REV. H. M. FORD, a Methodist minister, Presiding Elder of the Owensboro district last year, is on trial before a church committee for contracting debts he knew he was unable to pay.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made to have street cars leave corner of Market and Third to-morrow night to accommodate those who attend Professor Vincent's lecture at the High School.

ONE section of the chapter on revenue and taxation as adopted by the Con. Con. provides for an agreement between mortgagee and mortgagee as to the payment of taxes on the mortgage.

MR. J. P. MANNIX, of Minerva, and Miss Eleanor Soward, of Dover, were granted marriage license this morning. The wedding takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of the bride.

AN exchange says a farmer in Holt County, Mo., has twenty-six living children, none of who are married, and all of whom are at home. There are eleven pairs of twins in the little home circle.

TO MAKE the consumer familiar with the name and the merits of any line of manufactured goods, there is no quicker, better or cheaper means available than the intelligent use of newspaper advertising. —A. N. Kellogg Newspaper Co.

THE Anti-Horse Thief Society of Brown and Adams County has elected the following officers for 1891: President, Dyas Gilbert; Vice President, John H. Carr; Secretary, Samuel Evans; Treasurer, Jno. Buchanan, Jr.; Captain, Jno. Buchanan.

JOHN S. MANN, formerly "Mack," of Ferguson & Mack, the stars in "McCarthy's Mishaps," is now with "The Hustler," the new farce comedy that will be rendered at Washington Opera House next Saturday night. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

THE Court of Claims in Pendleton County has been abolished, and five Commissioners now attend to the financial affairs of the county. A recent session of the Commissioners cost $45, and a Court of Claims for the same length of time would have cost $240.

THE County Board of Equalization has finished its work and adjourned. It made a net increase of $55,000 in the assessment of the county. The fact that so few changes were made by the Board is evidence that Assessor Everett and his assistants did their work well.

IN the thirteen principal tobacco manufacturing districts, the production of manufactured tobacco for 1890 was 204,849,120 pounds, an increase of about 18,000,000 pounds, and but little of this was manufactured here in Maysville, the center of one of the richest tobacco growing territories in the United States.

THE last grand jury in Lawrence County reported 318 indictments, 100 of which are against one man for violations of the local option law. The manager of the Great Western Mining and Manufacturing Company's store, was indicted for offering to sell diseased meat and afterwards throwing the carcass into a water course.

THE next entertainment in our Lyceum course will be given next Monday evening, 26th inst., by Mr. Frederick D. Losey, the dramatic reader and impersonator. Our Bureau has decided to place season tickets for the four remaining entertainments at $2 each. Where parties will buy two or more they will cost only $1.50 each. These tickets can be procured of Mr. Simon Nelson, at his hat store, or of any of the gentlemen composing the Bureau. The box sheet for the reading on next Monday night is now open at Mr. Nelson's, where holders of season tickets can secure their reserved seats.

MR. D. W. OSBORNE, who lives near Tuckahoe, had a bay mare to die a few days since that was thirty three years old. She was bought at Lexington at the close of the war.

ONE who has heard Mr. Frederick D. Losey says his rendering of the famous Chariot Race from "Ben Hur" is well worth the price of admission. The Lewistown (Me.) Advocate says his character sketches there were enthusiastically enjoyed. Hear him Monday night.

DR. J. A. HESPERSON, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, a few years ago, was paralyzed last Saturday at his home in Lagrange. The stroke is only a partial one, affecting his right side. His friends will regret to learn of his illness. His son, Dr. Harry Henderson writes that his father is a little better than when first attacked. The stricken man is able to talk and recognizes his friends and members of his family.

THE Court of Appeals, in affirming the case of Chambers & Marshall versus Baldwin, ruled that one party to a contract cannot maintain an action against a person who has maliciously advised and procured the other party to break it, unless the person procuring the breaking of the contract did so by coercion or deception, and thus caused the party to break the contract against his will contrary to his purpose. The only exception to this rule is where apprentices, menial servants and others whose sole means of living is by manual labor, are enticed to leave their employment; and this exception exists by virtue of statute.

LECTURES.
We are informed, by those in a position to know, that the demand in the past week for the works of Hawthorne and Dr. Johnson has been far in excess of the supply. Mr. Leon H. Vincent will be greeted at the High School to-morrow evening by an intelligent and appreciative audience. Doors open at 7:30. Lecture at 8 o'clock.

Real Estate Transfers.
M. G. Teager and others to Moses G. Moore and Harbin H. Moore, 50 acres of land on Lees Creek; consideration, $4,500.
